Coordination with Ministries and States

1252. SHRIMATI N.P. DURGA: Will the Minister of PANCHAYATI RAJ be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that recently a meeting on Panchayati Raj was held in Raipur in the light of the Prime Minister's directive that all the Ministries should consult the Panchayati Raj Ministry while making any Central Plan or programme for rural development and social justice;

(b) if so, the outcome of the meeting; and

(c) the details of action plan prepared for coordination between the various Ministries and all the States?

THE MINISTER OF PANCHAYATI RAJ (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) to (c) The third Round Table of Ministers in charge of Panchayati Raj was held at Raipur on 23-24 September, 2004 in which the subjects of Provisions of Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA), reservations for women; and reservations for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes were discussed. The Ministers of Panchayati Raj agreed to recommend to their respective Governments for joint acceptance by the Centre and the States, action points arrived at during the meeting. Although Centrally Sponsored Schemes were not part of the Raipur agenda, the fact is that the Prime Minister has approved a suggestion from the Ministry of Panchayati Raj that all Ministries who are operating Centrally Sponsored Schemes should review their schemes in the light of Article 243G read with XI Schedule with a view to incorporating into the Schemes the Constitutional provisions in this regard, in letter and spirit. It has also been decided that the Ministry of Panchayati Raj should be consulted and their views incorporated in the notes prepared for consideration of Cabinet/ Cabinet Committees in all cases relating to Centrally Sponsored Programmes/Schemes that have a bearing on decentralization. Ministries are expected to take necessary action in this regard.
